* From Sarojani, "...I see on our upcoming calendar that there are 2 sessions scheduled for The Bhagavad Gita--March 23rd and April 13th. I have taken the liberty to ask my husband, Premdas to be with us as he has studied this text with Baba Hari Dass for the past 35 years and has recently finished the final editing of Babaji's commentaries into a published 2 edition text. He is checking his calendar and will let me know within a few days. Of course, I will report back as soon as I hear.
